The status of the claims is as follows:

Claims 9-14 and 16-42 have been cancelled; and Claims 1-8 and 15 are herein addressed below.

The drawings dated 12/24/2009 are not approved by the Examiner

The drawings are objected to because Figures 5-12 are not clearly understood. The lines are not clear, clean, or crisp. The images within the drawings cannot be deciphered to the point of what the applicant is trying to show. There are no labels or lead lines to readily understand the drawings. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance. Thus, the replacement drawings dated 12/24/2009 are NOT APPROVED.

Claims 1-8 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 1, lines 14-15, and claim 15, line 10, the phraseology "exceptional situations" and "normal operation" is not readily understood by the Examiner. Specifically, what is "exceptional" and what is "normal"?

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-8 and 15 are further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Duhamel et al. (5,541,585).

Claims 1-8 and 15 are further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Spinelli (7,042,492).

The applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive. The applicant has failed to provide specific argument exactly how each rejection above differs from that of the applicant's claimed invention. An event generator is nothing more than a controller and/or a controller having a microprocessor which controls (via images and stored images) the opening and un-opening of a door closer device. The amendments dated 12/24/2009 have failed to provide further clarity or limit to the claims.

Still furthermore (as stated in the last office action), it should also be noted that the security/sensor system of the United States Patent and Trademark Office works exactly like that of the applicant's claimed invention.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
